

The Cultural Legacy of Ageing Well with Dementia:

Towards Creating Positive Futures in Research and Care Practices

Hosted by the Faculty of Health Sciences,

University of Hull

Wednesday 29 November 2017

1 – 5 pm

Kingsley Suite in Canham Turner,
University of Hull

PRINCIPAL PARTNER

The Cultural Legacy of Ageing Well with Dementia: Towards Creating Positive Futures in Research and Care Practices

Programme

1 pm

Welcome: Professor Esme Moniz-Cook

1 – 1.45 pm

'Reading Friends: Building Conversations and Relationships between Volunteers and Older People, Including Those with Dementia' – Debbie Hicks (Creative Director, the Reading Agency) and Cath Burley (Consultant Clinical Psychologist)

1.45 – 2.30 pm

'Personal Music for Dementia' – Andy Lowndes (Deputy Chair, Playlist for Life and 'music detective')

2.30 – 2.45 pm

Silver Strings: Dr Liz Price (Faculty of Health Sciences, University of Hull)

2.45 – 3.15 pm

'Building Relationships between Volunteers and People with Dementia through Poetry' – John Killick (poet and writer: The Story of Dementia and Poetry and Dementia), Dr Emma Wolverson (Faculty of Health Sciences, University of Hull) and Professor Michael Gratzke (Faculty of Arts, Cultures and Education, University of Hull)

3.15pm – 3.45

Question Time - Afternoon cream tea - Break

4 pm

Welcome: Professor Glen Burgess (Deputy Vice Chancellor, University of Hull)

4.05 pm

Lecture: 'The Legacy of Ageing Well with Dementia: towards Creating Positive Futures in Research and Care Practices' – Professor Esme Moniz-Cook (Professor of Psychology, Ageing & Dementia Care, Faculty of Health Sciences, University of Hull)

4.35 pm

Panel debate: 'Living Well with Dementia' – Chair Professor (Reverend) Peter Draper (Faculty of Health Sciences, University of Hull)

4.55

Concluding Remarks: Professor Julie Jomeen (Dean, Faculty of Health Sciences, University of Hull)

5 pm

Drinks reception